Com.It.Es. – Friburgo organise a

Workshop

Humour brings people together

Smiling in difficult times

Open to anyone who loves drawing, whether amateurs or professionals, and anyone who wants to learn about the elements and strategies of creating humour, satire and entertainment, under the guidance of Italian cartoonist and humorist Claudio Mellana. Or anyone who wants to spend an afternoon creating and sharing smiles with people like us, here, in difficult times.

Sunday 12 October 2025 – Vivace, Wallstraße 15, Freiburg, 1st floor, from 2,30 p.m.

Registration, admission and participation in the workshop are free of charge.

Please confirm your attendance at: cultura@comites-freiburg.de

We will send you information about the event, its programme and the opportunities and gifts reserved for participants.

Claudio Mellana is an Italian humorist. He began publishing in underground and political magazines in the late 1960s. After participating in the counter-information movement, his drawings appeared in major Italian newspapers and magazines. Starting in the 1970s, he devoted himself to political satire and created hundreds of cartoons and posters. Alongside satire, he cultivated a passion for wordless humour and the study of satirical, humorous and caricatural drawing. He has published over 3,500 cartoons.
